ITEM 70 (Cont'd) PAYMENT OF CHARGES (Cont'd) If AM, at its sole discretion, uses a collection agency or attorneys to collect delinquent bills for freight or other charges and AM is successful in collecting such charges, Customers shall reimburse AM for all reasonable collection costs, including reasonable collection agency fees and reasonable attorneys' fees.	MISCELLANEOUS RULES AND CHARGES
ITEM 75 SECURITY DEPOSIT For customers who have established credit with this railroad, a deposit to secure payment of all charges, including, demurrage, storage, detention, switching or other accessorial charge that may accrue will be required from such customer who has failed to pay demurrage, storage, detention, switching or other accessorial charges when due under applicable laws and regulations. (Customers as referred to herein shall mean any and all consignors, consignees, beneficial owners or other responsible parties.) The deposit must be paid before any freight car or trailer is delivered to such customer for loading or unloading. The minimum deposit for each freight car will be the average amount per freight car of demurrage, detention, storage, switching or other accessorial charges outstanding at the time this tariff provision is invoked against Customer. The maximum amount of deposit will be determined by this railroad's credit office or through other alternative forms of security. The credit office may waive the minimum deposit per car by accepting a revolving deposit of $1,000.00 to $50,000.00 based on traffic volume. The deposit will be held in an escrow account to guarantee payment of and to be applied against any switching, demurrage, detention, storage or other accessorial charges which may accrue since the implementation of the security deposit arrangement. This railroad will refund the deposit or balance of the deposit within thirty (30) days after notification by its agents that the equipment has been released to this railroad. Any switching, demurrage, detention, storage or other accessorial charges will be deducted from the deposits before any refunds are made. The deposit or balance of the deposit may be transferable to another freight car to cover charges incurred since the implementation of the security deposit arrangement. Security deposits will no longer be required after the Customer has paid all outstanding switching, demurrage, detention, storage and other accessorial charges and has given assurance in writing to the satisfaction of this railroad's credit office that future switching, demurrage, detention, storage and other accessorial charges will be paid within the credit period.	ITEM 100 LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION 49 U.S.C. Section 11706 provides for full-value liability and other liability terms for the rail carrier and the Customer. In order for a shipment to be subject to the terms of 49 U.S.C. Section 11706, the Customer must comply with all of the following provisions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. On shipments that the Customer chooses Carmack Liability protection, Customer must contact the AM no less than 72 hours prior to movement by the AM for Charges to apply. 2. If Customer does not elect Carmack Liability protection, AM will assume liability for freight claims subject to the following limitations: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The Minimum Claim for loss or damage to freight is $250.00. (b) AM's Maximum liability for loss or damage to freight is $25,000.00. (c) Individual pricing documents may contain different limits of liability which take precedents over the provisions set forth herein. 3. Customer agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the AM from any loss, damage, personal injuries or death resulting from Customer's negligence, improper loading; or, defects in or failure of railcars and equipment. 4. Acceptance of a shipment by the AM for transportation shall not be considered as a waiver of Customer's liability. 5. The AM shall not be liable for any loss, damage or injury caused by an act of God, the public enemy, act of the Customer, a public authority, or inherent vice or nature of the goods. AM shall not be liable for any loss, damage or injury due to Customer's negligence, improper loading or defective equipment.
	ITEM 104 PERISHABLES The AM does not provide protective service. Perishable freight under protective service will be accepted from Customers on outbound traffic and from connecting railroad on inbound traffic for delivery to Customers with the understanding that protective service is not provided by the AM and the AM accepts no liability for any loss or damage resulting from failure of such protective service.

ITEM 192 [1] STOPPING-IN-TRANSIT TO COMPLETE LOADING OR TO PARTIALLY UNLOAD (See Notes 1 and 2) Cars containing carload freight on which the AM receives a line-haul revenue may be stopped in transit on the AM for the purpose of completing the load, or to partially unload, subject to the following conditions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> The stop-off point must be intermediate between the origin and ultimate destination. The charge for each stop-off in transit shall be $463.00 per car. Shippers at point of origin must designate on shipping order and Bill of Lading: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Stop-off privilege desired, i.e., whether to complete loading or to partially unload. Point or points at which car is to be stopped. Name and address of party who will load or unload at stop-off point. (See Note 1). No freight may be loaded after first stop-off for unloading and no freight may be unloaded before last stop-off to complete load. NOTE 1: Only one party will be permitted to load or unload at stop-off point. No notation is to be made as to the portion of the shipment to be loaded or unloaded at stop-off point. NOTE 2: Demurrage charges as defined in Freight Tariff RIC 6004 shall apply until car is released from being unloaded at the stop-off point.	ITEM 197 [1] DIVERSION OR RECONSIGNMENT One diversion or reconsignment will be allowed on a shipment received on the tracks of the AM, provided no previous diversion or reconsignment has taken place on the same shipment, subject to the following conditions: (See Note) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Definition - A single change in name of consignor and/or consignee, and/or a single change in destination or place of delivery at destination. Diversion or reconsignment may be made only at a point intermediate between interchange with line-haul carrier and origin or original destination on the AM. The rate to be used will be the through rate from point of origin to final destination, subject to the rate from point of origin to diversion point, or from diversion point to final destination, whichever is higher, as a minimum. Diversion or reconsignment will only be accorded when order is placed with an authorized agent of the AM prior to arrival of car at destination and in time to permit instructions to be relayed to yard personnel. The charge for diversion or reconsignment shall be $203.00 per single car and $87.00 per car on shipments of 5 cars or more. On a "straight" Bill of Lading consignment, the original Bill of Lading should be surrendered or other proof of ownership established. On a shipment consigned "To Order," an order to divert or consign under these rules will not be effective until the original Bill of Lading is surrendered for cancellation, endorsement of diversion or reconsignment, or exchange, or in its absence the property may be diverted or reconsigned in advance of the surrender of the Bill of Lading only under the provisions of Uniform Freight Classification (see Item 5) concerning the delivery of shipments consigned "To Order." Shipments on "straight" Bill of Lading, showing consignment to one party with instructions therein, or on which instructions are otherwise given to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Notify or advise another party and deliver only upon surrender of written order; or Deliver only upon surrender of the original Bill of Lading; or when Consigned in any other manner which imposes upon the carrier the obligation not to make delivery or permit diversion except upon surrender of original Bill of Lading or written order should be treated as shipments billed "To Order" unless the reconsignment or diversion order is given by or the delivery is to such original billed consignee or his agent. The "Advise" or "Notify" party must be considered as the consignee. (Continued on next page)
